DETAILED ACTION

This application is a rule 371 continuation of PCT Serial Number PCT/GB99/04027.

Claims 1-23 are currently pending.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-16 and 18-21, drawn to a pharmaceutical composition comprising an immunologically effective epitope of a rhesus protein, peptides of rhesus protein and their use in the manufacture of a medicament.

Group II, claim(s) 17, drawn to a method of tolerizing a subject comprising administering a peptide of a rhesus protein.

Group III, claim(s) 22, drawn to an in vitro method of determining the effect of one or more epitopes from a rhesus protein on a human lymphocyte.

Group IV, claim(s) 23, drawn to a method of determining the propensity of a RhD negative subject to produce anti-D antibodies after exposure to RhD positive blood.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The usefulness of epitopes derived from Rhesus D and Cc/Ee proteins in immunotherapy and in the induction of immune responses has been described in Table 3 in particular of Barker et al. (Blood [1997] 90(7):2701-2715; U on form PTO-892) and in Stott et al. (Blood [1998] 92(10), part 1, supplement 1, page 25A; V on form PTO-892). The references each implicitly consider the use of such peptides in pharmaceutical compositions (Abstract in particular). These two documents anticipate the subject matter of generic claims 1 to 4, 7 to 9. Accordingly, the claims do not represent a single general inventive concept.

Art Unit: 1644

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to F. Pierre VanderVegt whose telephone number is (571) 272-0852. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th 6:30-4:00 and Alternate Fridays 6:30-3:00.
